

Unit 5 Employment

■ Vocabulary

Exercise 1

In pairs, think of words and expressions related to employment.

Example:

You find out about a vacancy: advertisement, magazines, newspapers, TV, Internet, people you know

- a) Apply for a job:
- b) Job interview:
- c) Getting a job: employ, employer,
- d) Contract/type of job:
- e) Termination of employment: retire, retirement,

Exercise 2

Complete the sentences with appropriate words from the box.

resign	applicants	full-time basis	employment contract	dismiss	promotion
unemployment rate	notice period	retire	redundant	part-time

1. The went up to 5.1% from 4.8%, it's highest level since the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina in September 2005. It rose after 80,000 jobs cut in April this year.
2. Logica is to make 1,300 people as part of £110m restructuring plan.
3. We had to three of our employees for serious misconduct.
4. My parents plan to move to the country after they
5. If you want to get a, you'll need to do the best you can in your current position, and also to gain skills and qualifications far beyond what your current job requires.
6. Some include details about their hobbies and interests in their CVs.
7. A formal agreement between employer and employee, stating the terms of employment in an organization is called
8. He decided to from his job, as he was not satisfied with the salary and working conditions.
9. The length of varies, but the usual duration is 4 weeks.
10. As I am still at university, I am not employed on a, but I have a job.